Define Problem Statements (Customer Problem Statement Template):

Businesses, startups, and digital marketers often struggle to create effective advertisement copy that is engaging, platform-specific, and conversion-focused. Writing separate advertisements for Google Ads, Instagram, and Facebook requires marketing expertise, creativity, and considerable time. Many small businesses cannot afford professional copywriters, while generic AI tools fail to generate content that follows platform guidelines and marketing best practices. As a result, campaigns become less effective, inconsistent, and time-consuming to manage.
